SO WHAT DOES THAT MEAN?

Our building was constructed in the late 1930's and integrated many Art Deco style designs in its architecture. We wanted to honor its history and its unique composition by incorporating many attributes to our restaurant from that grand time. All of our menu names are slang terms from the 1920's.

Alderman: A man's pot-belly

Bee's Knees: A superb or awesome person or thing

Big Cheese: An important person

Blind Date: A date with an unknown person you've never met, usually arranged by a mutual friend

Box Job: A safecracking

Canary: Woman singer

The Cat's Meow: Anything wonderful

Cat's Pajamas: Term of endearment, as in "I think you are really really cool"

Copacetic: All good, as it should be

Cup of Joe: A cup of coffee

Darb: An excellent person or thing

Dizzy with a Dame: To be deeply in love with a woman

Drugstore Cowboy: A fashionably dressed loiterer who hangs around public places

Dumb Dora: A ditzy girl

Flat Tire: A dull, boring person

Giggle Water: An alcoholic drink

Heebie-Jeebie: The jitters, the creeps

Horse Feathers: Nonsense; something not to be believed

Hotsy-Totsy: Pleasing

Jalopy: An old, busted-up car

Java: Coffee

Main Drag: The most important street in a town or city

Mickey Finn: A very strong drink

Palooka: Man, probably not very smart

Peppy: Full of vitality

The Real McCoy: A genuine person or thing

Ritzy: Elegant (from the very expensive and lavish hotel chain the "Ritz", originally in Paris)

Spiffy: Having an elegantly fashionable appearance

Struggle Buggy: A car, particularly an old and battered one

Swanky: Elegant, fancy

That's the Crop: That's all of it
